FROM GRAHAM BY ONE HOLE.

Robbins, Morrow and Foot Win the Minor Cups-Handicap Tie at 69 Net -Montelair and Englewood Gain Matches in New Jersey Association.

All square in the morning, C. H. Seely beat Archie Graham by one hole in the thirtymix hole final of the sixth Metropolitan Golf Association enampionship, yesterday, at the Fox Hills Golf Club. This gave the possession of the silver salver to the Wee Burn Golf flub of Stamford, for which in three other years Seely has won the championship trophy of the Connecticut Golf Association. Both are popular and the yest gallery divided are popular and the vast gallery divided its applause fairly with the phanges of the close and exciting match.

The scoring, save in the last nine holes, The scoring, save in the half half half was not up to the mark set by Graham in his earlier matches, but there was a shot or two op nearly every hole worth a clicer. Graham topped from the eighth and night tees and sliced into trouble from the tenth tee in the morning, but he saved one of the holes the morning, but he saved one of the holes the right by a thirty foot put. They were equare at the minth and again at the eighteenth. The cards were 41, 41-82 for Seely, and 41, 43-84 for Grahame In the afternoon Seely took three puts on the second green, and both were ragged in this department going out. This cost Grahem the fourth hole, but Seely drove out of bounds on the sixth and they were again all even. Driving to the 271-yard eighth green, Graham 3 and had the lead for the only time e lost the lend at the eleventh, 5 to 6, and eely won the thirteenth, also 5 to 6. Now rame a wonderful finish -live holes halved in "is and it was Seely's untich."

On the short sixteenth, as he did on the fifth, Seely sayed a half by laying Graham a stymic. Equally lucky, although he tried for it, was Seely's thirty foot put on the seventeenth, which carned the half here. It was the critical moment of the struggle that had carried the two and the following crowd over eight miles on foot. Seely pulled his drive into rough grass, could not do more than chop it out on the second and made the green on the third, where Graham had sent his hall by two perfect shots. He stood serenity, almost sure of winning and squar-

WIN INTERCOLLEGIATE TRACK AND FIELD CHAMPIONSHIP.

Yale Beaten After Close Contest-Ithacans' First Victory-New Becords in Hair Mile and Pole Vault-Schick's Dual Brackets-5,600 Persons See Games. PHILADELPHIA, May 27 .- Cornell University athletes were the heroes of the annual track and field championship of the Intercollegiate

Association of Amateur Athletes of America held here to-day at Franklin Field. They secured the point honors and the champion-ship cup from all the big colleges in a fair and manly style and no one begrudged them the well earned victory. Cornell's win was a bit of a surprise, for although lots of people expected them to put up a stiff fight with Yale, Harvard, Princeton, and Pennsylvania, few expected them to finish first. Early in the fray it was evident that the battle would be between the Ithaca lads and Yale, for when the program was three quarters gone the score was 20 to 18 in favor of Cornell. It must be admitted that the time honored Yale luck was a laggard to-day, for the "dark blue went wrong in many vital points.

It is Cornell's first victory, the best to their credit heretofore being fourth place, some years ago. But the score was very close, Cornell only winning by 23, points. The total tally was: Cornell, 3014 points: Yale, 28; Harvard, 2014; Pennsylvania, 18; Princeton, 15: Colgate, Amherst and Syracuse, seach: Stevens, 3: Swarthmore, 2, and Columbia and Haverford, 1 each.

The track was in fair shape, and although the day was a trifle heavy it was a good one for fast work. One intercollegiate track record was shattered. E. B. Parsons of Yale showed his spikes to his opponents in the half mile, and the brownhaired New Haven beauty's time was I minute 56 seconds. It was the fastest half ever seen at an intercollegiate meet and wiped the old mark of minute 56 4-5 seconds, by E. Hollister of Harvard, off the books, where it has stood since 1896. Sensational figures were ex-pected from Schick, the Harvard sprinter, but beyond a dual win-the 100 and 220nothing very startling happened. He had a rather parrow escape from defeat by Rulo n Miller of Princeton in the hundred, and had not a fast quarter been previously taken out of Hyman, Pennsylvania, it is hard to say how the result would be in the 220. Hyman's win in the quarter from Dives, Harvard's sure thing, surprised the critics. time of 49 2-5 seconds, only a fifth behind the intercollegiate record, shows him to be a sterling performer for the two furlongs year in the mile, and it was singular that his time was nearly the same only this year it was two-fifths of a second faster. Hail it was two-fifts of a second faster. Hail of Yale showed his gameness in the two miles. When the hell rung for the last lap Willgoose of Cornell let out a link in earnest and the issue looked to be all one sided, but with grim determination Hail kept pegging away and clipped the Cornellian's wings in the last few strides.

For the lumps and weights the infield was in good condition. In this department Dray of Yale in the pole vault made a new intercollegiate record. He vaniled 11 feet 10% inches on his first trial and had the bar raised to 12 feet 1% inches. Just then the crowd broke in on the grounds and hindered Dray considerably in his trials. As it was, he made a splendid attempt to propel hinself over this height, getting his legs and body over it, but he brought down the bar with his right elbow. Oray svulting was remarkable for a freshman, but he says he has been at the game since he was 10 years of age, so it is easy to account for his profesion. he has been at the game since he was 10 years of age, so it is easy to account for his proficiency. Van Duyne showed his worth in the hammer, and his work was more like the heaves of a champion than in the preliminary trials. Princeton has a first rate broad jumper in Simons, and his 23 feet 2½ inches puts him in the front rank of performers at the sport.

A growd of about five thousand persons was present, made up principally of the college element, and they cheered, velled and rooted during the entire afternoon. J. E. Sullivan, president of the Metropolitan Association of the A. A. T., was referee Evart J. Wendall, M. P. Halpin, C. J. Dieges and M. Bishop, New York A. C., and John J. Dixon, Forty-seventh Regiment, were prominent officials.

In the first heat of the semi-finals Schick won by a yard from Read of Amberst. Rulon-Miller ran like a streak in the second heat and beat Khakal by two yards in even time. In the final Rulon-Miller and Schick were the first to get moving, and for about twenty yards were abreast. Then to the surprise of the crowd, Miller beam to forge abead, but Schick had some speed in reserve and at seventy-five yards shot to the front. Within a few yards of the worsted Rulon Miller tried again and closed ou Schick, but the Harvard flyer kept going and won by half a yard. A yard separated Read from Rulon Miller and about the same distance divided Knakal from Read.

Time, 15-2-5 seconds. Time. 15 3.5 seconds.

Amsler and Vonnegut had a neck and neck race in the first heat of the semi-finals, the former winning by half a yard. Another close race resulted in the second heat, when Castleman won only by inches from Brown. In the final heat Amsler was the first to get moving, and he took the first hurdle with a slight advantage, with Castleman and Vonnegut about level and Brown about a yard behind.

About half way Vonnegut sprinted and tried. gut about level and Brown about a yard behind.
About half way Vonnegut sprinted and tried hard to collar Amsler, but he did not have the speed, and he fell back level with Castleman again. Amsler maintained his lead to the finish, winning by a yard, and Castleman beat Vonnegut by inches for second place with Brown about four yards behind, bringing to the rag.

There were twenty starters, and when the pistol cracked there was a scramble for the lead, but Alcott of Yale led at the first quarter, with Munson, Itill and Williams close up. Camp of Cornell was in the van at the half, and the time was 2 minutes 10 seconds. Along the backstretch Munson spurted into the lead, with Williams about three yards behind. The pair drew away from the field at every stride, and in the home; stretch Williams made his effort, but could not quite catch Munson, who won by a yard. Ten yards separated second and third, and a yard third and fourth.

Poate of Cornell made the running for the first lap, after which he fell back and Hail of Yele took up the pace, with McDonald of Columbia treading on his heels. Lemon of Cornell then moved up and Chanin of Princeton showed some fight. At the mile Hail ton showed some night. At the mile Hall was in the front, with Lemon and McDonald in attendance. The time was 4 minutes 54 3-5 seconds. King of Harvard spurted, but Willigoose proved a fiyer, and when the bell rang for the last lap led by five yards, but Hall kept going and nailed him five yards from home. RECORD FOR CORNELL CREW

The rowing of the Cornell junior eight was easily the feature of the regatta. They took the lead at the start in the eight oared junior event for college crews and led the hale freshmen and the University of Pennsylvania craws down the course by nearly a dozen lengths. They crossed the line in the record breaking time of 6 minutes and 31 seconds two seconds less than the previous record, made by the Argonauts of Canada in 1903. This race was also especially interesting, as Yale and Pennsylvania, two colleges which have not rowed against each other for years, were having their first contest in local waters. The Bine won by two lengths.

The Vespers Honley eight was pitted against the past and present oarsmen from the University of Pennsylvania. It was a race from the start and the Vespers showed their ability to stand a close and grueling race by winning out by a grand spurt near the finishing line by half a length.

There were very lew fouls, but one occurred in the first centiped race, in which the Pennsylvania Barge and the Philadelphia Barge were the only starters. They were ordered to row over the course and were declared univers.

Double Sculls (Schwikill cup—Won by C. B. Wood and W. B. Williams, Philadelphia Barge Club. S. W. Morris and Allan G. Henry, University Barge Club, second: Time, 7 minutes 52 seconds. Philadelphia was disquaithed for fouling the University at the trolley bridge.

Single Sculls. Won by Thomas S. Stokes, University, H. B. Beylard, Philadelphia, second: George F. Joly, Hachelors, third. W. B. West, Undire, fourth. Time, 8 minutes 27, 2 Seconds.
